News

- TNND Tren de Aragua gang recruiting adolescents, who the US gives leniency because of their age.
- Swing states: 48% Tr., 46% Har — Harvard
- Tr.: "will bring down cost of energy 50% in first year."
- FBI ~~is~~ stops (intercepts) election day attack.
- NTD UN says Israel tanks forced entry into base [UN is chronically anti Israel]
- Beck [Fantastic recording of interview he had w/ Tr. Tr. is very cordial/real/genuine — completely opposite the fake that is so typical of Har., who is putting on a pretend show so she can get her Marxist ass into the W.H. The question is ^{if enough} ~~if~~ how many ~~of~~ Americans will see through it.] [I took half a page of notes that I'd like to relay here, but I'm falling behind. (time)]
- Glenn: Har. campaign "empty calories" — nothing but hype
- Betting markets: Tr. 57% up from 54% last week
- Scrapps Tr. interview on Bloomberg News, "It was a peaceful transfer of power." Host ~ JB was hardly peaceful. [Antifa, BLM dressed as MAGA, agents provocateur... instigated riot...] "No guns" [There were a few, none fired]. "No one was killed except Ashley Babbitt." [There were 2-3 other patriots killed. Doesn't he know that? One was trampled/smashed under pile of protesters.]

Moved to Section 1 (Sam's)

Apparently, it's hard to get into section 1. My move here was probably accelerated by an incident on Sunday when my pod rep. threatened violence on me, which was addressed in a Mediation he called this morning, which backfired on him. The tension in my pod was high, as it was in the section in general. I was glad to leave there, and could hardly get out faster than I did.

Section 1 has many advantages over sec. 6. Their section rep., Jacob (JR) is close to ideal. A great leader, humble, righteous, uplifting. The evening meeting was better than anything I ever witnessed in section 6. ^{in the evening daily meeting} "Gratitudes" went on for ~5 mins, ~~and~~ His assistant, Sam Shaffer, is my friend from Olympus (2.5 years ago) whose mother, Mary, has created my website and has been posting my content, including this piece. I had a nearly 3-hour deep chat with Sam — one of the best conversations ~~we've~~ I've had in my life, certainly here in prison. He told me about a vision he had 2 months ago, which he's written into a booklet, "My Crystal Spaceship Vision," which his mom has posted to his website, "CouncilOfTheSeers.org".

A quick note regarding my title title for this piece, including the label of "seer" for Sam. This is in the spirit of Num. 11:29, "Would God that all the Lord's people were ~~propets~~ prophets." & Oh, another great thing going on here is a nightly prayer circle. This evening, prior to the prayer, ~5 of us sang, "You Raise Me Up."
