Singing With Christain Fairbanks Again

I had a great time playing piano, singing / harmonizing with John and Will for the first hour. We have a great chemistry in our singing. Strong Spirits.

In the second hour, Chris showed up, finally (after 30-day banishment). We resumed his ^(our) arrangement of toggling back & forth between "Heark the Herald Angels Sing" and "Angels We Have Heard on High," beginning the next line as the other singer ~~finishes~~ sings the final word of their line, then harmonizing on the "gloria's". We sang it for Pres. Burnett and a few other volunteers. Later, we worked on an arrangement (from the outside) of "Somewhere Over the Rainbow."

Chris was playing ⁽¹⁾ guitar & (2) banjo. He's phenomenal, gifted.

Sterling Daily (1/26/25): Homan: People Here Illegally Should Feel Uncomfortable

by Sterling A. Atlas, 228033; USC F B2-1 101A

Jan. 26, 2025, Sun. News, Shows, Church* Highlights & Commentary

UBTU 6:15a

- BYU-ID dev. Linda Ward. Story of locking keys in car at ward house after church. Ward leaders trying to help her open doors, unsuccessfully. 5-yo son goes into church, prays, explaining situation (her husband gone for week, she needs car). Came back to car. One of the leaders thinks to try his Oldsmobile key (similar model) it works. (Later was not able to do it again.)
- Story about honoring commitment to read ^{scripture} chapter a day, notwithstanding being super tired. Downer chapter - wars. Next day, in temple, next read next chapter, which turned out to be ideal for the question she'd gone to the temple with. Synchronicity.
- This Week/ABC Recaps highlights of barrage of Tr. actions since inaug.
- Tom Homan [I love this guy: so strong, direct, no-nonsense] "You (illegals) should be afraid and leave. I wouldn't be comfortable if I was in Switzerland illegally." Collateral arrests are likely.
- Politico chief ed. guest: "Let's admit it, Tr. is a great pres."
- Church (I did prelude, including arrangement of "Master the Tempest is raging.")
- Sis. Layton, quoting Elder Kearon: "Imagine Jesus speaking these words to you."

"Fear not, I know your sorrows, and I have come to deliver you. I will not leave you. My name is upon you, and my angels have charge over you. I will do wonders among you. Walk with me; learn of me; I will give you rest. I am in your midst. You are ^{mine.} ^{mine.}"
- Sunday School (Sis. Parke) me: We can know God's ~~law~~ love by serving and feeling God's love in so doing. This is illustrated by the volunteers' service, conveying God's love to us. I felt this power-

Fully when ~13 y.o. passing the sacrament and contemplating on God's love for them. ^(already said) I felt that love power-fully. From that I knew God loves all of us. (2)
