Oct. 5, 2024, Sat. News, Shows[†] Highlights & [Commentary]

Sapphires Jonathan Cahn, Oct. 2024 Core letter

We say God's name all the time, every time we say "I am —". [Ties to Ps. 82:6 "I have said, Ye are gods, and all of you are children of the most High." — a constant reminder]

Gen. Conf.

- Elder Neal L. Anderson: "Hope shines brightly in a ^{world.} drenched
- Elder Reiland: "If we heed, we'll receive more and more."
- Pres. Dallin H. Oaks (12th Pres.): kite string analogous to covenants. Blessed are the peacemakers, esp. in a divisive world. ~~Pres~~ RMN says this is one of best ways for us to know Jesus disciples.
- <I missed much of afternoon session, getting a hair cut.>

T Dad's Autobiog: "What Inventions Have Had the Biggest Impact on Your Day-to-Day Life?" His role in GPS launch as the nation's timekeeper: Atomic clocks are the heart of the GPS. The Allan Variance is what enables the atomic clock algorithm/analysts to work as it does, as does ^{his} the "common view" correlation/aggregation of the world's best clocks. He tells of a time in St. Petersburg, Rus., when he used his intuitive guidance^{on 2015} to make it safely back to his hotel. "Listen to your heart." In 2011 he received the "Time Lord" award in Edinburgh, Scotland, just south of where the "Allan" name comes from (the kingdom of Fife).
