I love the programming Real America's Voice (RAV) TV produces, watching it nearly every waking hour (multi-tasking), and even having my earbuds in with it ^{through the night} on^ to tune out noises at night (e.g. other inmates snoring in our pod of 8). #

(See my editorial, "If RAV..." 9/25/2022)

That said, I was deeply disappointed on 9/17, when they snubbed Alex Jones, seeming to send a message of spurning of this pillar of ^{brave} excellence among the MAGA patriots. The day prior, and that morning, RAV had carried, live, several of the "Defeating the Great Reset" lectures hosted by Charlie Kirk's Turning Point USA. I loved it, taking careful notes. I was especially looking forward to hearing the upcoming "surprise guest." They really worked up the mystique.

<9/19> At the time the "surprise guest" was to appear, the RAV team, with anchors Ed Henry & Karyn Turk (do a fantastic job), were doing pre-rally coverage in Youngstown, OH, three hours prior to Pres. Trump's arrival. When it came time for the "surprise guest" to appear, on queue, RAV switched over to the Turning Point USA event in Arizona.

It was Alex Jones, ^{probably} indeed the most brave and articulate and knowledgeable expert on the history, influence, and evils of the Great Reset. I immediately went into full-focus mode to absorb the wisdom he would impart.

Not a minute into it, RAV's Terrance Bates cut in on behalf of the station to tell the audience that if they want to continue watching Alex, to scan the QR code. Then they went back to the Youngstown venue, and Ed & Karyn did a fluff interview with a passer-by attendee. It was a total snub.

There is no comparison in quality of content: like kindergarten vs. Alex's graduate level presentation. I had a strong impression that the RAV admin are still embarrassed by the conspirator's denigration of Alex as the archetypal deplorable "conspiracy theorist". Had the speaker been someone like Nigel Farage, they would have carried it. In this case, they were acting like mainstream media, ^{convicted with} ~~empty water~~ ^{deep state} for the establishment.

To their credit, not long after this which should be seen as a pinnacle badge of honor.

they couldn't pull away fast enough.

③

snub, they carried ^{Ohio's} the MAGA congressional candidates' brief addresses to the assembled crowd, plus present ^{fantastic} representatives Bill Johnson and Jim Jordan; as well as (likely ~~vs~~ ^{over}) Marjorie Taylor Greene. Great content, but not as excellent as Alex Jones talking about the Great Reset.
Couldn't they ^{have} recorded that and play ^{ed} it later (either one)?
