Kindness Matters: Summit Speakers

One Kind Act a Day, the sponsors for the "Kindness Matters" class, are bringing in a group of very talented speakers. Please come and see!

THURSDAY APRIL 10, 2025

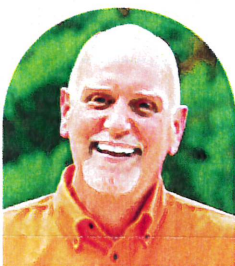

Bear Low Chapel 2: 9:00 am – 11:00 am

Chester Elton, David Paine, Rosa Anaya

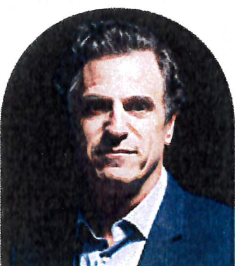

Rosa Anaya is an advocate of peace and justice in El Salvador where she runs Second Chances, a CRS program that rehabilitates inmates in four prisons, preparing them to return to society and the workforce.

Rosa has developed innovative approaches to combat gang violence that provide young people from troubled backgrounds with marketable skills, access to jobs and psychosocial rehabilitation. Driven by her belief that violence is the product of an unjust society, Rosa also is pioneering restorative justice in El Salvador's prison system.

Chester Elton is not only the co-author to the Gratitude Journals used in the Kindness Matter Class, he is a five-time New York Times Bestselling Business Author and expert in organizational culture, employee engagement, and leadership. He brings two decades of experience in helping clients engage their employees effectively. A sought after speaker and coach, he offers research-based solutions for building culture, driving innovation, and enhancing wellness.

David Paine is the President and Co-Founder of the September 11 National Day of Service and Remembrance, ("9/11 Day").

Prior to creating 9/11 Day, David founded and lead the national public relations firm, PainePR, an award-winning agency known both for its outstanding creative work, as well as its pioneering use of innovative humanistic philosophies in the workplace.
