<6/4 Memo: I'm probably going to put this "Daily" news⁺ recap on hold for a while. I've got a bunch of other writings (e.g. AB studies, letters) that are backing up and take priority given my unique skill set. I've been persistent on this "daily" task because I see it being a strength I want to keep ongoing, including through the Millennium (the ~~I~~ will make it much easier). However, yesterday it occurred to me that presently this has become a distraction from more important tasks. So, for now, I'm going to try just scaling this "daily/weekly" task to just a few key bullets/comments per day.>
