- Msh. 8:16 "...except he...possess the power of God, which no man can; yet a man may have great power given him from God." Seems to contradict D&C 88:107 where saints are "made equal with" God. I raised my hand to say something to the effect that the key is in the meaning of "man" being ^{first, independently,} fallen man. Then, Stephen made a comment about how that 2 Cor. 5:17, 17 passage Elder Gong cited 2 days ago to us has a JST change: "whence, henceforth live we no more after the flesh..." and he tied this to becoming ^(Stephen & me) joint heirs of Christ, sharing in God's power. Divine synchronicity. (It may be misremembering this, confusing it with a comment that after noon.)

Sterling Daily (12/28/24): Jonathan Cahn: Biblical Jehu Parallels Trump - To Stop Nation's Fall from God

by Sterling D. Allan; 228033; USCIF

Dec. 28, 2024, Sat. News⁺ Highlights & [Commentary]

Sapphires Jan 25 opening "The Return of Jehu"

Jonathan Cahn compares Tr. to Jehu (1 Kings 16-Hos. 1) "Jehu was an unlikely vessel of God, wild, impulsive, combative, unpredictable. Forged an alliance with the religious conservatives of his land. Partnered with a religious conservative as he raced to his nation's throne. In order to become the leader of the land, Jehu had to confront a woman with an ungodly agenda (e.g. Hillary & ¹⁶Manala). The woman endorsed the cult of Baal, the sacrifice of babies (e.g. ²⁴abortion). Jehu overturned the temple & cult of Baal (e.g. overturning Roe v. Wade). The calling and purpose of Jehu... was to stop a nation's fall from God - and turn back to Him."

- Re. John 20:24-29 "Blessed are those who have not seen yet have believed" me: On my mission (1970), I studied "How God, privilege of seeing", knowing it was possible to see God and that we should pursue this. I've (2) not had this privilege yet, but I'm grateful for the testimony I have notwithstanding, my faith turning to knowledge, as depicted in Alma 32.

It's easy to believe if you see.

DEC 9321.

- Casey: "What these men (me, Riley, Daniel) said is what I was going to say."
- Given the sacredness of Bro. Shaw's testimony, I opted out of making a comment about 1 Cor. 15:5 Paul omitting Mary Magdalene's being the first to see the resurrected Lord; after saying in the previous chapter that women should keep silence in the Churches. Notwithstanding his great testimony, he was clearly affected with unhealthy mesogony.
